INDEX TO VOL. LI.

Affghanistan, sketch of the campaign in, 676.
Agitation, introduction and effects of the system of, 538.
Agriculture and Science, 738.
"A health to thee," by B. Simmons, 534.
Americans in London, 25.
Angelo, a Tale from the drama of Victor Hugo, Chap. I., The Key, 799—Chap. II., The Crucifix, 805—Chap. III., The Poison, 807.
Aphrodite, Homer's hymn to, translated, 579.
Army, the British, 398.
Art, the natural in, 435.
Bailey's review of Berkeley's Theory of Vision, review of, 812.
Ballad, "A health to thee," by B. Simmons, 534.
Banks and banking companies, 146,
Baptism of the prince of Wales, ode on the, by B. Simmons, 531.
Berkeley and Idealism, 812.
Bibliomania, 624.
Bobrik, Geographie des Herodot, notice of, 3.
British Museum, the, 420.
Burying-places of London, the, 650.
Cabool and Affghanistan, 676.
Caleb Stukely, Part I. Home, 224—Part II. College, 306.—Part III. College, 445.—Part IV. First Love, 585.
Campbell's life of Frederick the Great, review of, 333.
Cemeteries (Things of the Day,) 510, of London, the, 650.
Chronicles of the Cité of Paris, 87.
Church of England, the, 400.
Circassia, 405, 629.
Cleobis and Biton, a story from Herodotus, 536.
Copyright, the present law of, 634—question, review of the, 107.
Corn laws, the, 414.
Corn question, policy of Sir Robert Peel on the, 538—summary of the debate on it, 541—fallacy of the arguments against his policy, 544—and of those of Mr Villiers on, 546.
D'Arblay, Madame, extracts from the memoirs of, 784.
De Cresci, a poem, 24 .
Dee, Dr, sketch of the career of, 626.
Delta, legend of St Rosalie, by, 101.
Delusion, Mackay's history of, reviewed, 51.
Dependencies, Lewis on the government of, reviewed, 213.
Derby day, the, 386.
Deserted Village, illustrations to the, by the Etching Club, reviewed, 122.
Dost Mohammed, 506.
Downs, a ramble on the, 156.
Dumas, Alexander, a tale from the drama of, 609.
Earthquake, the predicted, 511.
English agriculture, state and prospects of, 406.
El Empecinado, passages in the career of, Part I., 521—Part II., La Morena de Malaga, 756.
Etching Club, review of illustrations by the, to the Deserted Village, 122.
Evening Walk, the, a poem, 653.
Exhibition of London, the, 419.
Fairs of London, the, 384.
Fane's five years in India, review of, 474.
Father Tudkin's malediction, a tale, 248.
Financial policy and measures of Sir Robert Peel, 540.
Fishers of the East coast of Scotland, notes on the, 296—dialect spoken by, in Aberdeen, ib.—their villages, 297, 299—their costume, 297—and personal appearance, 298—their superstitions, 299—their teenames, 300—illustrative anecdotes of, 301—their habits as wreckers, 302—and while at sea, ib.—prevalence of smuggling among them, 304.
Five years in India, review of, 474.
Florence, museum at, 48.
Foreigners in London, French, 22—Italians, 23—Savoyards, 24—Spaniards, 25—Germans, ib.—Americans, ib.—Jews, 26—Gipsies, 31.
Frederick the Great and his times, review of, 333.
French in London, 22.
Fuocista, the, 350.
Gabrielle de Belleisle, a tale from the drama of Alexander Dumas, Chap. I., the Court Lovers, 609—Chap. II., the Wager, 610—Chap. III., White is Black and Black is White, 614—Chap. IV., the Duel, 616—Chap. V., White is White, 618.

Galley slaves, 40.
Geneva, Protestantism in, 162.
Geographie des Herodot, notice of, 3.
Germans in London, 25.
Ghent, the prisoner of, by B. Simmons, 98.
Gipsies in London, 31.
Goldsborough, Robert, case and trial of, 553.
Goldsmith's Deserted Village, illustrations to, by the Etching Club, reviewed, 122.
Hamburg, the conflagration at, 797.
HB., Lines to, by the author of the Life of Burke, 535.
Heiress and her friends, the, Chap. I., 64—Chap. II., 66—Chap. III., 69—Chap. IV., 73—Chap. V., 76—Chap. VI., 80—Chap. VII., 82.
Heraut to Ourenbourg, narrative of a journey from, 691.
Herodotus, the philosophy of, 1—general misconception regarding, ib.—importance of the era preceding him, ib.—his merits as a geographer, 2—causes of the erroneous views regarding him, 3-8—his work not exclusively a history, 4—viewed as a depository of legends, 6—as a political economist, 7—increasing estimation in which he is held, 9—his theory of the solar system, 10—his parallelism between the Danube and Nile, 12—on his Africa, 14—his chronology, 20.
Herodotus, Cleobis and Biton, a story from, 536.
Homeless people in London, 173.
Homer's hymn to Aphrodite, translation of, 579.
Hogarth, defence of, 390.
Horticultural exhibitions, 425.
Hugo, Victor, a tale from the drama of, 799.
Huntley, William, supposed murder of, and trial for it, 553.
Hymn to Aphrodite, from Homer, translation of, 579.
Impostures, 51.
Income-tax, review of its merits and demerits, 540, 551.
Ireland, present state of, 509.
Italian opera, the, 429.
Italians in London, 23.
Italy, sketches of, No. III., galley slaves, Leghorn, 40—museums at home and abroad, 42—zoological gardens, ib.—Pisa, 44—its museum, 46—its botanic garden, 47—Florence, museum of, 48—birds in it, 49—snake room, 50—No. IV., approach to Venice, 721—Venice, 723—the prisons, 724—the society of St Rock, 726—travellers in Italy, &c. 728—St George's, 729—Napoleon's acacia garden, 730—St Marc's, 732—the pictures, ib.—the armoury, 733—bead manufactory, 734—the regatta, 735—the Armenian convent, 737—the bridge of sighs, 738.
Jews in London, 26.
Johnstone's agricultural chemistry, review of, 738.
Johnson, Dr, anecdotes of, from the memoirs of Madame D'Arblay, 784.
Journey from Heraut to Ourenbourg, narrative of, 691.
Kaubool and Affghanistan, 676.
Kennedy's (Dr) narrative of the campaign in Kaubool and Affghanistan, review of, 676.
Khiva, narrative of a journey to, 691.
Law of Lauriston, sketch of the career of, 53.
Legend of St Rosalie, the, a Poem, by Delta, 101.
Letter to Christopher North. "Who is the Murderer?" 553.
Lewis on the Government of Dependencies, review of, 213.
Libel law, the, 141.
Lines to HB., by the author of the life of Burke, &c., 535.
London, the world of. Part VIII. Foreigners in London—French, 22—Italians, 23—Savoyards, 24—Spaniards, 25—Germans, ib.—Americans, ib.—Jews, 26—Gipsies, 31. Part IX.—homeless people in London, 173—homeless great people, 174—club people, 176—parlour people, 177—dinnerless homeless people, 185—utterly homeless people, 190—Part X. London recreations, 370—social relaxations, 373—going in state, 375—the parks and gardens, 380—fairs, 384—the Derby day, 386—Part XI., 417—exhibitions, 419—the British museum, 420—the National Gallery, 421—the Zoological Society's exhibitions, 424—Horticultural exhibitions, 425—music, 426—the Italian opera, 429—the theatres, 431—Part XII. Theatricals, 639—the abbey and tower, 648—killed, wounded, and missing, 650.
Mackay's memoirs of popular delusion, review of, 51.
Malediction of Father Tudkin, the, a tale, 248.
Marriage, proposed changes in the law of, 513.
Mississippi Scheme, sketch of the history of the, 57.
Morell, Mademoiselle de, case of, 768.
Morena of Malaga, the, 756.
Museums at home and abroad, 42.
Music, (the World of London,) 426—(Things of the Day,) 621.
Narrative of a Journey from Heraut to Ourenbourg, by Captain Sir Richmond

Shakespear, 691—departure from Heraut, ib.—his fellow travellers, 693—his Affghan costume, 690—arrival at Yellatoon, 696—and at Merve, ib.—routes to Heraut, 698—a Turcoman shepherd, 700—arrival at the Oxus, 701—and at Khiva, 702—interviews with the khan, ib. 703—adventure of Captain Abbott, 703—meeting with an Italian, ib.—review of the journey, 704—Turcoman horses and horsemanship, 705—character and habits of that people, 706—character of the khan, 712—departure for Ourenbourg, ib.—and arrival there, 720.

National gallery, the, 421.

Natural in art, the, 435.

Northern Circuit, the, No. I. introduction, 193—Samuel Hogginbuck, Chap. I., 197—Chap. II., 203—Chap. III., 207—No. II. the Dumpling, Chap. I., 356—Chap II., 359—Chap. III., 363—Chap. IV., 366—No. III. introduction, 487—Fluffy Jack, Chap. I., 488—Chap. II., 492—Chap. III., 497—Chap. IV., 504—No. IV. introduction, 661—Chap. I., 662—Chap. II., 665—Chap. III., 668—Chap. IV., 672.

Notes on the fishers of the Scotch east coast, 296—their dialect, ib.—their villages, 297, 299—their costume, 297—and personal appearance, 298—their superstitions, 299—their teenames, 300—Anecdotes of them, 301—their habits, 302—prevalence of smuggling among them, 304.

Nunneries, 623.

Ode on the ceremonial at Windsor, by B. Simmons, 531.

Oracles, the pagan, 277.

Ourenbourg, narrative of a journey to, 691.

Over the channel, 159.

Pagan oracles, the, 277.

Paris, chronicles of the Cité of, 87.

Parks and gardens of London, the, 380.

Parliament, the new houses of, thoughts on the modes of ornamenting, 388—objections to fresco, ib.—and to oil painting on the walls, 389—objections to exclusively historical paintings, 389, 391—defence of Hogarth, 390—subjects suggested, 395.

Passages in the career of El Empecinado. Part I., 521.—Part II., La Morena de Malaga, 756.

Peel, Sir Robert, policy of, 537—motives for his proposed alteration of the corn laws, 538—his financial policy and measures, 540, 550—his personal position, 542—exposure of the fallacies on the corn question, 544—general summary on it, 550—his proposed income tax, ib.

Philosophy of Herodotus, the, 1—see Herodotus.

Photography, 517.

Pisa, 44—its museum, 46—its botanic garden, 47.

Poor laws, the, 518.

Poetry—The prisoner of Ghent, by B. Simmons, 98—The legend of St Rosalie, by Delta, 101—De Cresci, 242—"'Tis hard to die in spring," 332—Ode on the ceremonial at Windsor, by B. Simmons, 531—ballad—"A health to thee," by the same, 534—To HB., by the author of the life of Burke, &c. 535—Cleobis and Biton, a story from Herodotus, 536—Translation of Homer's hymn to Aphrodite, 579—The evening walk, 653.

Popular delusions, Mackay's memoirs of, reviewed, 51.

Portraits of Versailles, the, 323.

Prior, James, Esq., lines to HB. by, 535.

Prisoner of Ghent, the, by B. Simmons, 98.

Problem in the law of circumstantial evidence, 553.

Protestantism in Geneva, 162—effects of the works of Turretini on, ib.—its Socinian character, 655—effects of its former Calvinistic character in producing this, 171.

Prussian monarchy, rise and progress of the, 333.

Q. Q. Q., letter from, to Christopher North, 553.

Railway accident at Versailles, the, 794.

Ramble on the Downs, a, 156.

Recreations of the Londoners, the, 370.

Rencontre in St Peter's, a, 347.

Roadside sketches, 153—a ramble on the Downs, 156—over the Channel, 159.

Roamings in Rome, a rencontre in St Peter's, 347—a Roman execution under Gregory XVI., 348—the Fuocista, 350—the Catherine wheel, 352—the Villa Medici, 354.

Roden, Lord, 150.

Roman execution under Gregory XVI., a, 348.

Rome, roamings in, 347.

Ronciere, Emil de la, trial of, 768.

St Rosalie, the legend of, by Delta, 101.

Savoyards in London, 24.

Science and agriculture, 738.

Shakespear, Sir Richmond, narrative by, of a journey from Heraut to Ourenbourg, 691.

Simmons, B., poems by, the Prisoner of Ghent, 98—ode on the ceremonial at Windsor, 531—ballad, "A health to thee," 534.

Sketches, roadside, 153.

Sketches of Italy, No. III. Galley slaves, Leghorn, 40—museums at home and abroad, 42—zoological gardens, ib.—Pisa, 44—its museum, 46—its botanic garden, 47—the Florence museum, 48

—the birds in it, 49—the snake room, 50. No. IV. approach to Venice, 721 Venice, 723—its prisons, 724—the society of St Rock, 726—travellers in Italy, 728—St George's, 729—Napoleon's acacia garden, 730—St Marc's, 732—the pictures in, ib.—the armoury, 733—bead manufactory, 734—the regatta, 735—the Armenian convent, 737—the bridge of sighs, 738.

Slave trade, the, 47.

Spaniards in London, 25.

Spy, the, a tale of the Carlist war, 33.

Steam, future progress and results of, 636.

Style, specimens of, from the daily press, 516.

Sympathizers, the American, 143.

Ten years of the Whigs, Part I., 130—effects of the last French revolution on their prospects, 131—their accession to power in 1830, 133—they introduce the Reform Bill, 134—and the Irish Coercion Bill, 139—secession of Lords Grey, Stanley, &c. from them, 140—formation of the Melbourne ministry, ib.—Part II., 258—they withdraw the Coercion bill, 259—their resignation, 260—their attack on the Irish establishment, 262—debate on their proposed Appropriation clause, 265—they re-enter office, 268—their coalition with O'Connell, 269—they abandon the Appropriation clause, 272-275—their final resignation, 276.

Thames Tunnel, the, 782.

Theatres, the London, 431, 639.

Things of the day, No. I., the libel law, 141—sympathizers, 143—banks, 146—the slave trade, 147—Lord Roden, 150. No. II., the army, 398—the Church of England, 400—Circassia, 405—English agriculture, 406—the Corn laws, 414. No. III., Dost Mohammed, 506—Ireland, 509—cemeteries, 510—the earthquake, 511—marriage, 513—style, 516—photography, 517—poor laws, 518. No. IV., music, 621—nunneries, 623—bibliomania, 624—Dr Dee, 626—Circassia, 629—copyright, 634—steam, 636—Part V., the Thames Tunnel, 782—Madame D'Arblay, 784—the Railway, 794—Hamburg, 797.

Thoughts on the modes of ornamenting the new Houses of Parliament, 388—objections to fresco, ib.—to oil painting on the walls, 389—and to exclusively historical subjects, 391—defence of Hogarth, 390—subjects suggested, 395.

"'Tis hard to die in spring," a poem, 332.

To H., by the author of the life of Burke, 535.

Venice, sketches of, 721.

Venus, Homer's hymn to, translated, 579.

Verdict of a French jury, the, a trial in 1834, 768.

Versailles, the portraits of, 323—the railway accident at, 794.

Villa Medici, the, 354.

Villiers, Mr, exposure of his fallacies on the Corn question, 546.

Westminster Abbey, 648.

Whigs, ten years of the, Part I., 130—effects of the last French revolution on their prospects, 131—their accession to power in 1830, 133—they introduce the Reform bill, 134—and the Irish Coercion bill, 139—secession of Lord Grey, Sir James Graham, &c. from them, 140—formation of the Melbourne ministry, ib. Part II. 258—they withdraw the Coercion bill, 259—and resign, 260—their Irish appropriation clause, 263—debate on it, 265—they return to power, 268—their compact with O'Connell, 269—abandon the appropriation clause, 272, 275—their final resignation, 276.

Who is the murderer? a problem in the law of circumstantial evidence, 553.

World of London, the, Part VIII., foreigners in London, French, 22—Italian, 23—Savoyards, 24—Spaniards, Germans, and Americans, 25—Jews, 26—Gipsies, 31. Part IX., homeless people, 173—homeless great people, 174—club people, 176—parlour people, 177—dinnerless homeless people, 185 utterly homeless people, 190. Part X., London recreations, 370—social relaxations, 373—going in state, 375—the parks and gardens, 380—the fairs, 384—the Derby day, 386. Part XI., 417—exhibitions, 419—the British museum, 420—the National gallery, 421—zoological society's exhibition, 424—horticultural exhibitions, 425—music. 426—the Italian opera, 429—the theatres, 431. Part XII. theatricals, 639—Westminster abbey and the Tower, 648 killed, wounded, and missing, 650.

Zoological gardens, foreign, 42.

———— society's exhibitions, the London, 424.

END OF VOL. LI.

Edinburgh: Printed by Ballantyne & Hughes, Paul's Work.